

OKC Counselors Visit SWOSU

04.20.2005

Southwestern Oklahoma State University recently hosted 45 Oklahoma City area high school counselors during a bus tour stop in Weatherford. The counselors came to Weatherford to get more acquainted with SWOSU. The trip was sponsored by the Oklahoma City Community Foundation. OCCF Guidance Counselor Linda Keefe (second from left) and OCCF Scholarship Manager Anna-Faye Rose (third from left) coordinated the event with Todd Boyd and Jena Skarda of the SWOSU Admissions and Recruitment Office.

Southwestern Oklahoma State University recently hosted 45 high school counselors from the Oklahoma City area during a bus tour stop in Weatherford sponsored by the Oklahoma City Community Foundation.

The counselors came to Weatherford to get more acquainted with SWOSU.

Todd Boyd and Jena Skarda of the SWOSU Admissions Office coordinated a workshop for the counselors. The group toured the SWOSU campus and then heard presentations by Kelli Litsch on NCAA vs. NAIA requirements; Ron Walker, athletic training; Susan Thiessen, pharmacy; Dr. Terry Segress, music therapy and music; Dr. Chad Kinder, Crowder Lake University Park; Dr. Peter Grant, biology; and Dr. Gary Bell, technology.

The group also had a question and answer panel with SWOSU students and enjoyed lunch at the Conference Center.

"This is the first time that the Oklahoma City counselors have come to us," Boyd said. "We really appreciated the opportunity to showcase SWOSU and our many outstanding programs."
